- 1. Anton accession, the State Secretary of the East German Foreign Linistry, has recently received unofficial inquiries through representatives of the diplomatic missions of the Satellite states. These inquiries concerned the formation of a national army in East Germany. Since 11 July ackermann has taken Peter Florin, chief of Main Department I (Political Section for those countries with which wast Germany has diplomatic representation, to these conferences. Florin is reported to have stated that several representatives of the Satellite states expressed concern over German rearmament. The strongest protest came from Poland. The thief of the Polish Diplomatic Mission in Berlin, Jan Izydorczyk, had several heated discussions with ackermann. Izydorczyk demanded a detailed explanation for his government and also demanded a meeting with Grotewohl.
- 2. Florin has been ordered by ackermann to prepare a contract-like agreement (vertragsandliche Vereinbarung) between Foland and East Germany which could serve as a basis for negotiations between the East German achassador in marsaw and the Polish government. These moves indicate the possibility that a military agreement will be arrived at between Poland and East Com-
- 3. Peter Florin and Herbert Grünstein, acting chief of the iNdVP, discussed the possibility of creating a demilitarized zone west of the Oler and Neisse Florin is reported to have stated that Grünstein rejected this proposal.
